NRO - AGREEMENT

20 March 1962

TS 155848

Mr. Scoville presented new draft version of NRO Management Agreement to DCI and said he had discussed it with Dr. Charyk who generally concurred and believe it a good working document on which to develop specific plans for NRO.

Scoville made it clear to Charyk that although the document did not specify that Charyk was to be Director, that this was CIA's intention.

Charyk also concurred in philosophy of assigning primary responsibility for approved projects to one agency or the other and that Dir and DepDir should both be involved in advance planning.
